When we pass by the first three, or Synoptical, Gospels, there remains a series of books by early Christian teachers, of whom Saint Paul and Saint John are by far the most Saillt Paul-g prominent. To Saint Paul is due a peculiar develop-teaelliusment of the faith which brings into prominence that side of Christianity known as Protestantism, --the doctrine of justification by faith; of the greater importance of dogma than of practice; of the predestination or election of those that will be saved. This whole way of thinking, this mode of looking at the world, so different from anything in the Jewish books, so far developed beyond the teaching of the Synoptic Gospels, was quite familiar to the most serious side of Hellenism, to the Stoic...
