

Tartan-Love (Paperback)

By Maria Danell

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . These poems are a chronicle of two years of my life, which at that time had just been turned upside down. I lost my perfectly planned future, my friends and my family. All these changes were initiated by my rebel son. I am very proud of him now, but there were times I felt crushed because of his stubbornness (My Lord). His decision to begin his own life made me analyze mine (Cardinal virtues, Dolce vita) and made me contemplate my feelings (Happiness). I started to question the wisdom of the path I had chosen to follow (Cave of ignorance, My friends, What s wrong). I felt worn out (For the most dangerous thing is to wait, If you don t know, 50 pennies and they re yours). And then something unexpected happened; Love crossed my way (His commandment, And now it is love, For I). Love had not been allowed to come into my life (Iridescent love) but she did not care. I...
