It sustains a commissioned high school course and gives three lines of vocational work-Agriculture, Domestic Science and Manual Training. The Business School has a strong course and prepares students for the various lines of practical business work. It also offers good courses in Oratory and Instrumental Music. Surroundings pleasant. Accommodations good. Ladies dormitory and boarding hall maintained by the school. Expenses very reasonable. For catalogue and further information address A. Jones, Pres., or C. C. Thomas, Vice-Pres. and Sec y, Marion, Ind. MUNCIE NORMAL INSTITUTE, Muncie; M. D. Kelly, Pres. School s Announcement.--The success of the Muncie Normal Institute Is unprecedented in the history of the educational world today. When less than four years ago President M. D. Kelly conceived the idea of inspiring and combining different forces to make a great vocational and industrial school the idea to many seemed impractical, even visionary, but the fact that today, at the closing of its third year of its existence, more than 3,000 students are taking advantage of this great opportunity is conclusive evidence that the Idea, instead of being a dream, was rather a prophetic vision, a clear foresight of the evolution of education in this, the twentieth century. It is well conceded by educators today that true education means more than a training of the mind--the cultural studies--it means the development of the...
