David Bourbon faces challenges as a kid growing up amidst the upheavals of the 1950s and 1960s. He learns about life and death at age 5, and again as a teenager. David grows up like other baby boomers in an era of change-the Mickey Mouse Club, Sputnik, the Pill, the Twist, the Cuban Missile Crisis, school integration, President John F. Kennedy's assassination, the Beatles, and an emerging war in Vietnam. At sixteen, David's life changes when his dad drives home in a new 1963 Ambassador Rambler. His romances include a few fumbles along the way as he tries to reconcile love, sex, and luck. David meets these challenges, sometimes with success, and builds his foundation for life's future renewals. Why the Poem? Over the years, I threw Class President novel material including this poem in a box, and when I began to write my first novel, this poem seemed more relevant. I expect this poem to be in the frontmatter of all of my books in The Class...
