I wrote The Last Ruble Part I A Story is Born to setup this book The Last Ruble Part II The Assassins. Part I introduces to the stories two main characters Jack Rivers and Vladimir. In Part I you met Jack and Vladimir. You learn what time of men there were and you also learned how they were cast into this adventure. In Part II, both men are in New Orleans and journey to Key West in parallel times. Along the way, both men encounter good and not so good situations. Chapter 3 - John J. picked up his son in a playful manner, spun him around, tossing him into the air and catching him in his arms face down. He then caught Antoinette off guard when he pointed to the scare on the back of Little Johns leg and asked. Whats this on Little Johns leg Responding without taking a closer look, she replied. Its a birthmark. Questioning her response, John T. said firmly. Ive never seen a birthmark like this. Antoinette looked away from John J. and replied. All are not the same. Still in a questioning tone, John T said. None are like this. Again, without looking at John J. , she responded. You worry a lot. He replied. I worry about those for whom I care. Again Antoinette replied. You shouldnt worry so much. Firmly, John T. said. I must never let my guard down if Im to protect you two. Antoinette finally looked at John J. and said. Were in America, what could go wrong John J. replied. You dont know the determination of my people, they never quit. Almost in a pleading voice, Antoinette replied....
