The Gold Medal for the best English Essay by students of the Hooghly College given by Mr. D. Money of the Civil Service, has not been gained this year, but the essay of Chundey Churn Shome was considered deserving of a Silver Medal, for the account of reading and extent of knowledge exhibited by it. Had a similar account of information been produced upon the subject of the essay itself, and had it been pruned of some vicious redundancies of style, the Gold Medal would perhaps have been assigned to it. The Silver Medal for the best Bengali essay was awarded to Judoonath Ghose. Mouluvee Wuheedoon Nubee, the Native Deputy Magistrate of Hooghly, forwarded to the Council of Education a handsome present of books, consisting of Knight's Cabinet Edition of Shakespeare,...
