Of course, our Association does not have the strength enough to bear this financial burden; we have to depend on the Committee on Friendly Relations among Foreign Students for a greater part of our support. Nevertheless, it is up to each one of us to help shoulder the amount of $2,000 or more, which is our share. The membership fees only aggregate from four to five hundred dollars a year; therefore it is necessary to hold a financial campaign yearly to make up for the deficiency. You will be notified as to the time of the campaign, and we hope that you will endeavor to help carry it to a successful finish....
