In Handbook 13 concerning the registration of nurses we read: The board of examiners of nurses appointed pursuant to laws of 1903, chapter 293, is continued. The New York State Nurses Association at each annual meeting shall nominate for examiners two of their number who have had not less than five years experience in their profession. Upon the expiration of the term of office of any examiner now in office the Regents of the University of the State of New York shall from the candidates so nominated fill the vacancy for a term of five years and until his or her successor is chosen. An unexpired term of an examiner caused by death, resignation or otherwise shall be filled by the regents in the same manner as an original appointment is made. The said regents, with the advice of the board of examiners above provided for, shall make rules for the examination of nurses, etc. The regents, with the advice of these ladies, shall make rules, regulations, etc. In all of this there is no place for a representative of the medical profession or of hospital boards. It is true that the gentlemen who compose the board of regents are capable of studying and mastering the nursing question. They have handled larger problems than this, but we have never heard that Hon. Whitelaw Reid, M.A., LL.D., the distinguished diplomat and statesman; or Hon. St. Clair McKelway, LL.D., editor of the Brooklyn Daily Eagle; or the Hon. William Nottingham,...
