With one singular exception they refer to the Eighteenth century, and, as here printed, belonged for the most part to Vice-Admiral Medley, a relation of the family. The one exception, standing quite alone and without anything to explain its presence, is the remarkable letter on p. 1, addressed by P.O. to the Duke of Gordon. It seems impossible to determine who the writer was, but it may perhaps have been Patrick Cunningham, an officer in the army of James II, who was arrested on a charge of high treason and committed to Newgate on April 22, 1689; was pardoned, January 13, 1691-2, and on February 12, 1691-2 was given a passport with leave to go to France. The interest of the letter speaks for itself, and as written by a warm partisan of the fallen monarch, must be considered as throwing a new and curious light on the domestic situation. But the great bulk of the papers are those of Medley, whose connection with Grimston brings out a quaint bit of family history, and the pedigree, involving many names which occur in the papers, can best be shown in tabular form. The founder of the family is said to have come over with the Conqueror; and in the time of Edward III, his descendant Gerard Grimston was settled at Grimston Garth.
